IIT Bombay Educational Outreach Announces Summer Programmes for School Students

MUMBAI | May 16, 2026: Recognising that education today must go beyond textbooks, Educational Outreach, IIT Bombay has announced a series of programmes under its School Outreach vertical focused on hands-on learning, collaborative exploration, and real-world problem-solving. These initiatives will enable school students to engage with ideas in designing, innovation, entrepreneurship, and interdisciplinary thinking, while experiencing the vibrant academic and research ecosystem of IIT Bombay.

The programmes, designed to inspire curiosity, creativity, and confidence among school students through immersive campus-based learning experiences, will be conducted between May 2026 and July 2026. Participants will gain first-hand exposure to IIT Bombay's innovation-driven ecosystem, including its advanced labs and technology spaces, aligned with the respective programmes in which they are enrolled. Certificates for eligible participants will be issued by Educational Outreach, IIT Bombay.

The upcoming programmes include:

- Makerspace Summer School – Batch 1 (2–10 June 2026)
- Makerspace Summer School – Batch 2 (12–20 June 2026)
- NextGen@IITB – Interdisciplinary Summer School (22–26 June 2026)
- Infinity Juniors – Entrepreneurship Bootcamp (1–5 July 2026)
- Design Thinking for Young Minds (July – Dates will be announced)

Through these programmes, students will benefit from experiential learning, expert guidance, and exposure to future-focused domains such as AI, robotics, design, entrepreneurship, and sustainability.
